

Innovative Interfaces is the leader in information technology for libraries. For twenty-five years, Innovative has provided libraries with the tools to efficiently serve their patrons, continually developing tools as needs evolve and technology progresses. Privately held and focused solely on the library industry, Innovative is committed to serving libraries.

Sun and Innovative have partnered for the success of our library community customers for over 10 years with an outstanding record of quality implementations for the networked library.