

License Terms for OpenSolaris™ OS On Amazon EC2 Beta

YOUR REGISTRATION AND ACCESS REQUIRES ACCEPTANCE OF THE FOLLOWING LICENSE TERMS.

The Software (as defined below) provided by Sun Microsystems, Inc. ("Sun") is separate from Amazon Web Services, including, without limitation, the Amazon Elastic Compute Cloud™ ("Amazon EC2") or Amazon Simple Storage Service™ ("Amazon S3") (collectively "Amazon Web Services") provided by Amazon Web Services LLC, Amazon.com, Inc., Amazon Payments, Inc., Amazon Services LLC and/or any of its affiliates (collectively, "Amazon").

Amazon is solely responsible for any Amazon Web Services or any other services it provides and Sun is not responsible or liable for any such services. The Amazon Web Services™ Customer Agreement is posted on Amazon's Web site. Conditions of Use for Amazon.com are posted at Amazon's Web site.

Your use of Amazon Machine Images (AMIs) of Solaris™ Express Community Edition ("SXCE") or OpenSolaris™ Operating System 2008.05 ("OpenSolaris OS") (collectively, "Software") as made available by Sun through Amazon EC2, Amazon Sw3 or otherwise is subject to the applicable license terms for such Software.

The AMI of SXCE is licensed under the terms of the Solaris Express Software License Agreement.

The AMI of OpenSolaris OS is licensed as provided in the Open Solaris License file.

Any additional software available from the OpenSolaris Package Repository is governed by the license information provided in the OpenSolaris Package Repository License file and/or in the individual software packages.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the applicable licenses set forth above, (i) you are only entitled to use the Software on Amazon EC2 servers (you are not licensed to run the Software for any purpose on any other server or your own computer); (ii) you are only entitled to use the Software for the period of time that you have purchased or otherwise been provided access to the Amazon EC2 servers; and (iii) you can only save an image of the Software on Amazon S3 storage for future use on the Amazon EC2 servers. No other use of the Software as provided through Amazon Web Services is permitted. Note, however, that the Software is available for use outside Amazon Web Services at the following download sites:
